The Comm Lab is looking to hire several new Fellows.

About the Communication Fellowship:
- Fellows are paid $15/hour and typically contribute 3-5hrs/week towards Comm Lab related activities.
- Fellows receive hands-on training throughout the first year on topics like scientific papers, figure design, and job applications. Trainings also emphasize best practices in feedback, coaching, and mentorship.
- Fellows will coach peers, develop workshops, and create innovative initiatives to meet the Communication needs of the department.

To be considered for a Fellowship, please email this application and a figure/slide that you are particularly proud of to Prerna Bhargava by 5pm, Friday, March 8, 2019.

Name:

Email Address:

How would you identify yourself (graduate student/postdoctoral associate)?

Whose lab are you in?

When did you matriculate/come to MIT and when do you expect to graduate/leave MIT?

Are you an international graduate student/post-doc?

What activities are you involved with at MIT?
We ask that applicants please discuss this opportunity with your PI as soon as possible, to make sure they would support your joining our program if accepted. We cannot accept candidates without PI approval. Please indicate your PI’s approval status at the time of submitting this application:

_____ PI has approved my potential participation

_____ Still waiting to hear from my PI about approval

Why are you excited about becoming a Communication Lab Fellow? Explain. (Maximum 250 words)

What is one science communication need you observe at MIT and what ideas do you have to address that need? (Maximum 250 words)