

Abstract: Constructing the Paragraph

1. What is the larger context or issue of your study? Why is it important?

2. What was your specific area of focus? What was the central problem or research question?

3. What was the main objective of your study?

4. What was your approach (i.e., the methodology) to answer your question?

5. What data did you generate? What was the main result(s)?

6. What are the potential implications of your study (in relation to the central question)?
