

Networking Plan: A Guide to Get You Started

After completing this worksheet, you'll be ready to start building a network in a deliberate, goal-oriented way. For specific guidance on networking online and in-person, review the CEE CommKit article, "Building a Network: Digital and In-Person Strategies for Students, Recent Graduates, and Postdocs".

Why do you want to network? E.g. I want to explore industries to apply to after graduation.
How much time for networking do you have? E.g. I have 10 months before I need a job.
What formal resources does your university provide? E.g. MIT Alumni Advisor's Hub, career fairs, company visits.
What networking opportunities (in-person or digital) are available to you? E.g. LinkedIn, and an upcoming conference.
What is your elevator pitch? E.g. Master of Science in CEE, passionate about sustainability, interested in start-ups.
What resources or assistance do you still need to identify? E.g. I want to find a list of MIT-affiliated environmental startups.
